

Women's International Centre for Economic Development

Cordially invite you to celebrate
International Women's Day
by attending our

3rd Annual Lecture

Developing Women's Entrepreneurial Talent

Presented by

Professor Colette Henry

and joining us for the Inauguration of Councillor Flo Clucas

as WICED's first President

Light refreshments will be served

Monday 8th March 2010
3:00pm – 5:00pm
NOVAS Contemporary Urban Centre
41 Greenland Street,
Liverpool, L1 OBS

RSVP by Monday 1st March 2010
Email debbie@train2000.org.uk or call 0151 236 6601

About Colette Henry:

Colette Henry is Norbrook Professor of Business & Enterprise, The Royal Veterinary College, London; she was previously the Director of Dundalk's Institute's of Technology Centre for Entrepreneurship Research.

Professor Henry is currently President of Institute for Small Business and Entrepreneurship.

Professor Henry's research interests are in the field of enterprise policy and women entrepreneurs. She also is one of the expert panel members for WICED.

About Flo Clucas:

Flo Clucas O.B.E. is Liverpool's Deputy Leader and Executive Member for Finance and Europe. She has responsibility for European Affairs and is a member of the Programme Monitoring Committee for Merseyside Objective 1, North West of England Objective 2 and ESF Regional Committees. She chaired the Projects Committee for Objective 1, and is currently a member of the Merseyside Phasing in Sub Committee. She is Chair of the North West Regional European Partnership and is President of the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe, a group of more than 100 members. Flo has been instrumental